

Burlington Stores, Inc. Announces Chief Financial Officer Transition

September 16, 2019

Appoints John Crimmins Interim Chief Financial Officer

BURLINGTON, N.J., Sept. 16, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Burlington Stores, Inc. (NYSE: BURL), a nationally recognized off-price retailer of high-quality, branded apparel at everyday low prices, today announced that Marc Katz has resigned as the Company's Chief Financial Officer/Principal, effective immediately, to pursue other professional opportunities. John Crimmins, Executive Vice President, Finance and Chief Accounting Officer has been appointed interim Chief Financial Officer.

"On behalf of the entire Board and management team, I would like to thank Marc for his dedication and valuable contributions during his 11-year career at Burlington. Marc has played a significant role in improving our financial and operational performance and strengthening our position as a leader in the off-price retail business. We wish him well in his future endeavors," said Thomas Kingsbury, Executive Chairman.

"John has been an active and valuable contributor to the Burlington management team since 2011 and has been leading our finance function for the past several years. We are fortunate to have a proven leader who possesses the important business acumen and experience to ensure a seamless transition," added Mr. Kingsbury.

Mr. Katz said, "It has been an honor and a privilege to be part of the Burlington story for the last 11 years and help lead the Company through a period of great transformation, growth and success. I am extremely proud of what we have accomplished together. I wish the entire Burlington team all the best in the years to come."

Mr. Kingsbury concluded, "Today is an exciting day for Burlington, as Michael O'Sullivan begins as our Chief Executive Officer. Our future is bright, and I look forward to working closely with the Board, Michael, Jennifer Vecchio, our President and Chief Merchandising Officer, and the rest of our leadership team to ensure a successful leadership transition."
